WELCOME TO STOCKTON!

On behalf of the City of Stockton, I would like to personally welcome you to Stockton. We sincerely appreciate you choosing to locate to our community. Stockton has grown from a community of rich agricultural roots to an urban destination blooming with arts, culture, fine dining, shopping, sports, recreation, fine agricultural products and family activities.

Stockton boasts quality housing that meets every budget, ranging from first-time homebuyers looking for reasonably-priced homes, to executives seeking luxurious homes. There are numerous recreational opportunities with over a dozen golf courses, two regional parks, a zoo, skateboard park, an indoor ice rink, neighborhood parks, bicycle paths, and swimming pools. Water recreation can be enjoyed year round due to the City's prime access to the San Joaquin Delta.

Art plays a major role in Stockton life. The renovated historic Bob Hope Theatre hosts musicals, comedy acts and concerts throughout the year. The Stockton Symphony performs classical and pop series concerts. The Stockton Civic Theatre, Stockton Opera, Stockton Chorale, and Brubeck Institute all feature year-round drama and musical productions. The Empire Theatre on Stockton's Miracle Mile also hosts a variety of performances by local artists. For those who enjoy museums, the Stockton Children's Museum offers hands-on learning experiences, and the Haggin Museum boasts a unique collection of historical paintings and traveling exhibits.

Stockton is proud of its diverse community and its cultural events such as a Cinco de Mayo Fiesta, Greek and Jewish food festivals, and Italian Street painting. Stockton hosts numerous festivals and concerts at its Downtown Weber Point Event Center along the waterfront, including the nationally recognized annual Stockton Asparagus Festival.
